

REMARKS

The Examiner has objected to claims 1 - 18 under 35 U.S.C. § 112.

The independent claim 1 has been amended to more clearly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter.

Claim 4 has been canceled.

The Examiner has rejected 6, 7 and 10 as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The function of the ribs is set forth on page 8, lines 11 - 13 of the specification.

FIG. 3 has been amended to clearly show the ribs 41 in reference to claim 7. That the ribs can be run perpendicular to each other is clearly disclosed in the Specification. Page 8, lines 11 - 13.

Claim 8 has been amended to indicate that the main section is several times thicker than the minor flap as set forth in the specification from lines 2 - 10.

Claim 10 has been amended to use the term "cover" rather than "sleeve". It is believed that the cover is adequately described on page 8 of the specification, lines 4 - 5, and lines 27 - 30. The specification points out that the cover can be integral with the main section or that it can constitute several sheets of material, Specification page 8, lines 17-20.

All of the claims have been rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting over U.S. Patent No. 6,718,706, or that patent in combination with McNally.

A terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 C.F.R. 1.321(c) is included with this response. This terminal disclaimer is signed by the attorney of record for the above application. This terminal disclaimer overcomes the rejection based upon the nonstatutory double patenting ground set forth in the Office Action.

Consequently, an early Notice of Allowance is respectfully requested. If the Examiner has any questions concerning this application, the Examiner is invited to telephone the undersigned.

AUTHORIZATION TO DEBIT ACCOUNT

However, in the event that additional extensions of time are necessary to allow consideration of this paper, such extensions are hereby petitioned under 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a), and any fees required therefor (including fees for net addition of claims) are hereby authorized to be charged to deposit account no. 20-0778.

Respectfully submitted,
